Presentation:

“Social Media Marketing for Businesses” (LinkedIn, Facebook, and Instagram)

Speaker: Jenny Brown with the Montgomery Advertiser

A good marketing consultant can translate a client's goals and dreams into actionable strategies- and if anybody's got that particular skill up her sleeve, it's Jenny Brown. Her incredible people skills enable her to forge strong relationships with clients, and her educational background (Bachelor's degree in Psychology; Master's in Public Administration) gives her the knowledge she needs to make her client's strategies work. Jenny also has years of experience as a marketing and development pro with distinguished brands such as the American Cancer Society, Coca-Cola Bottling Company United Inc., AT&T Advertising Solutions, Uptick Marketing, etc. Currently, Jenny Brown is responsible for helping clients achieve success through digital marketing at the Montgomery Advertiser. She helps clients tailor marketing strategies for generating new revenue and growing sales so they can focus on running their business.

Seating is limited, and lunch is provided.
