

CROSSROADS THEATER PIKE ROAD

Proudly presented by the Pike Road Arts Council

“A Sweet Strangeness Thrills My Heart: The World of Sallie Independence Foster, 1861-1887”

A performance by

Storyteller Dolores Hydock & Music Historian Bobby Horton

Twelve-year-old Sallie Independence Foster was living in Florence, Ala., in 1861 when the Civil War began. For 26 years, Sallie kept a diary, along with a collection of papers and letters from her brothers off at war. Join storyteller Dolores Hydock and music historian Bobby Horton as they create a poignant, powerful, humorous, and honest picture of a world of innocence turned upside-down.

Dinner, Music & Show

Dinner by the Pike Road Butcher Block
Tickets $40 each available at Pike Road Town Hall

Cash or check, please. Seating is limited!

Call 334-272-9883 for more information or email info@pikeroad.us

Sat. February 11, 2017
6 p.m.

Pike Road Town Hall
9575 Vaughn Road, Pike Road, AL

Town of Pike Road
ENHANCE initiative
creating quality of life

Pike Road Arts Council Mission: to sustain, encourage, and inspire the arts and cultural opportunities in the
Town of Pike Road

Tickets make a great
Valentine's Day gift

