Pike Road Arts Council to Host 7th Annual Art Market Saturday, March 3

Favorite Pike Road Tradition Offers Something for Everyone

PIKE ROAD, Ala – On Saturday, March 3, Pike Road Town Hall (9575 Vaughn Road) will be filled with unique artwork and handcrafted items from all over the State of Alabama as the Pike Road Arts Council hosts its 7th annual Art Market. This free event is open to the public and will take place from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Pike Road Schools cheerleaders will provide snacks in the morning and freshly grilled hotdog lunches from 11 a.m. - 1 p.m.

This year's Art Market will feature award-winning artists whose wares range from traditional paintings to handmade jams and botanical skincare products, jewelry crafting and much more. We are also pleased to welcome back the local British Car Club that will be showcasing authentic British cars outside.

This unique event offers something for everyone from art enthusiasts to those simply looking for a relaxing Saturday activity. Those in attendance will have an opportunity to talk with the artists, take pictures of the cars, purchase the artists' work, and participate in a silent auction benefiting the Pike Road Arts Council.

"Over the years, this event has grown to be a favorite tradition for both Pike Road residents and art enthusiasts in surrounding areas," said Mayor Gordon Stone. "We are blessed to have strong organizations like the Pike Road Arts Council, who take initiative to host events that are driven by residents' interests."

The Pike Road Arts Council was formed in early 2012 as part of the ENHANCE Initiative. ENHANCE: A Vision with Focus is a detailed plan for accomplishing work in four key areas known as the town's Four Pillars: quality of life, planning, services and education. ENHANCE stresses the enrichment of quality of life, and includes organizations and projects related to exercise, nutrition, health, agriculture, nature and community education.
