Pike Road Arts Council to Host Annual Art Market

On Saturday, March 4, Pike Road Town Hall (9575 Vaughn Road) will be filled with unique artwork from all over the State of Alabama, as the Pike Road Arts Council hosts its 6th annual Art Market. This free event is open to the public and will take place from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Local restaurants No Way Jose and The Pike Road Butcher Block will offer lunch specials during the event.

This year's Art Market will feature award-winning artists whose talents range from traditional painting to soap making, jewelry crafting and much more. We are also pleased to welcome back the local British Car Club that will be showcasing authentic British cars outside.

This unique event offers something for everyone from art enthusiasts to those simply looking for an exciting Saturday activity. Those in attendance will have an opportunity to talk with the artists, take pictures of the cars, purchase the artists' work, and participate in a silent auction benefiting the Pike Road Arts Council.

"We look forward to welcoming these artists back to the Town of Pike Road for the 6th Annual Art Market. It's hard to believe how much this event has grown over the years; it has quickly become a favorite tradition for both Pike Road residents and art enthusiasts in surrounding areas," said Mayor Gordon Stone. "We are blessed to have strong organizations like the Pike Road Arts Council, who take initiative to host events that are driven by residents' interests."

The Pike Road Arts Council was formed in early 2012 as part of the new ENHANCE Initiative. ENHANCE: A Vision with Focus is a detailed plan for accomplishing work in four key areas known as the town's Four Pillars: quality of life, planning, services and education. ENHANCE stresses the enrichment of quality of life, and includes organizations and projects related to exercise, nutrition, health, agriculture, nature and community education.
