A Note from Mayor Gordon Stone

“This weekend is an important one in the Town of Pike Road, and we don’t want you to miss a thing. It is the last weekend to take a tour of the 50+ Hay, Look at Us! hay bales, and it’s also our annual Veterans Appreciation Ceremony. Everyone, especially our local veterans, are invited to attend the Veterans Appreciation Ceremony, which will be held at 2 p.m. on Sunday, Nov. 6, at the Pike Road Veterans Memorial (4902 Pike Rd). We hope you will join us as we honor and recognize the men and women who have selflessly served on our behalf. As a reminder, don’t forget to “fall back” one hour when you go to bed on Saturday, Nov. 5, so you’re on time!

This weekend is also the last chance to check out all of the Hay, Look at Us! hay bales created by our citizens. This year, we have over 50 hay bales and over 1200 citizens who contributed to their decoration! We hope you will take a drive around Town to enjoy the intricacy and creativity of all the hay bale masterpieces. Visit us online at www.facebook.com/townofpikeroad to access a driving map! We are so appreciative of your engagement and participation, which make fall-favorite activities like the Hay, Look at Us! Hay Bale Decorating Contest a success and an illustration of the spirit of our community.

With your support, the Pike Road Arts Council will help the Food Pantry at Woodland UMC provide meals for our neighbors in need this holiday season. On weekends through Nov. 20, you can participate in the Arts Council’s annual silent auction benefiting Woodland UMC. Stop by the Arts Center (944 Wallahatchie Rd) to place your bids for items including miniature trees decorated with handmade ornaments, Christmas gnomes, a hand-painted nativity scene, and more.

Find details for the events listed above and more: Just visit us at www.pikeroad.us, or search @townofpikeroad on Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter.

As always, we will continue to pray for you, and we encourage you to pray for each other.

Thank you and God Bless.”
