A Note from Mayor Gordon Stone

"As summer begins to wrap up, we are excited that our events have yet to slow down! The Town of Pike Road wants to say thank you to those who have participated in so many of our summer events, and welcome those we hope to see soon.

As always, the Pike Road Arts Center has so much to explore! This weekend is the last opportunity to enjoy the Pursuit of Happiness Art Show, so come on out and discover local artists' personal definitions of "pursuit of happiness". Also this weekend, George Taylor will share his expertise at Art Talk & Tea on Sunday, July 16. Lastly, remember to visit the Quilt Show & Sale the last two weekends in July during open hours.

The P.R.A.Y.E.R. Team Summer Feeding Program will continue for the next two Saturdays, July 15 and July 22. Food resources will be available from 9 - 11 a.m. at Woodland Church for children facing hunger during the summer months. You can help support this valuable program by volunteering or making a donation.

There's always something happening in the Town of Pike Road! Don't miss a single event: stay connected with us by searching at @townofpikeroad on Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter.

As always, we will continue to pray for you, and we encourage you to pray for each other.

Thank you and God Bless."
