A Note from Mayor Gordon Stone:

"We hope you all enjoyed a sunny Memorial Day Weekend with family and friends, honoring the sacrifices of our nation's fallen heroes and celebrating the freedoms our armed forces continue to protect every day. In a region that is touched daily by our military men, women and their families, it is so important for us to remember all they – and those who came before them – do for our community and our nation. Thank you – we appreciate you, and we are humbled by the sacrifices made on our behalf.

Traditionally, Memorial Day Weekend marks the start of summer, and we are excited to enter this active season with growing opportunities to safely enjoy all it has to offer. Thank you, Pike Road, for your continued commitment to making smart, responsible decisions. Your diligence has helped keep our community healthy and allowed for more flexibility and fewer restrictions as we progress through the challenges of COVID-19...

We appreciate your engagement in the variety of activities presented by our ENHANCE initiative. As health & safety requirements allow, we are excited to offer more opportunities for in-person activities like the Pike Road Business Association's next quarterly Lunch & Learn. Join the PRBA on June 10 in-person or via webinar for Leadership: Do You Really Get It? This free professional development & networking program is presented in partnership with Troy University Continuing Education & Outreach and is designed to help YOU achieve your business goals. The Pike Road Arts Center is buzzing with activity. The Pike Road Quilters have resumed weekly quilting classes, and, later this month, the I've Been Everywhere, Man! Art Show will feature places traveled and travel desires from local artists.

Also on the horizon is SummerFest, the Town of Pike Road's annual Fourth of July celebration. Save the date and join us on July 1 for fireworks and family-friendly, patriotic fun, and stay tuned for details! Visit us online at www.pikeroad.us to register for our weekly e-newsletter and learn about all our upcoming events."

Spotlight On Safety: Community Programs from the Montgomery County Sheriff's Office Building safer communities is a priority of the Montgomery County Sheriff's Office (MCSO). On Tuesdays in June, we are happy to present "Tuesday Tips with the MCSO," a summer video series sharing how YOU can participate in and benefit from community safety programs provided by our local Sheriff's Office. Click the image or follow this link to check out the first video in this series: Business & Church Watch.

The Business & Church Watch program provides the MCSO with a direct contact to your business or church in case of an emergency. The main purpose of the Business & Church Watch program is to assist the businesses and churches in our community in the event that they are victimized by crime or other circumstances that require the MCSO to connect with an emergency contact and/or keyholder.

Enrollment is free and available through the MCSO website. For more information or to enroll in the Business & Church Watch, please contact the MCSO Community Relations Division at 334-832-1369 or click here to visit the MCSO online

This limited series is presented in partnership with the Montgomery County Sheriff's Office. Contact the Montgomery County Sheriff's Office: Visit the MCSO online or call 334.832.4980.
