A Note from Mayor Gordon Stone

“Thank you, Pike Road, for your enthusiastic support in our Valentines for Veterans Card Drive. With your participation, our team is pleased to deliver over 500 valentines to our partners at the Central Alabama Veterans Health Care System this afternoon!

As we approach the active spring season, we hope you will continue to be engaged in everything our hometown has to offer. The Arts Council’s Thresholds Art Show wraps up this weekend, and they will also host a Mini Art Market this Saturday, Feb. 12. The Arts Council’s offerings continue with a variety of art classes, too. Stay tuned as our Ag & Stewardship Club prepares to continue their monthly workshop series, and save the date for our first Pike Road Business Association Lunch & Learn of 2022. We hope you will join us on Mar. 17 to kick off this year’s Lunch & Learn series with Troy University Continuing Education & Outreach!

Don’t forget to shop local for your Valentine’s Day gifts! Our local businesses have so much to offer, and we love to see our community out and about supporting these businesses. We also want to encourage you to be sure you are registered for our weekly e-newsletter – just visit www.pikeroad.us to sign up, and receive local events & updates in your inbox each Friday!

As always, we will continue to pray for you, and we encourage you to pray for each other.

Thank you and God Bless.”
